I would like to voice my support for the ARRL's proposed revamping of the amatuer radio licensing requirements. I am currently a Tech class with a desire to transmit below 6m, but I have a tough time with morse code. The way I see it, a large percentage of the code is done by computers on both ends. With this technology it makes it simple to do morse code, but the test still requires test without the computer to aid you.